FATALLY SHOT BY DRUNKEN POLICEMAN IN FIGHT

Captain of Police Conboy of San Francisco Force Is Accused

HELD PRISONER FOR WOUNDING STRANGER

Officer Is Intoxicated When in Quarrel With Young Man

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—After thirty-one years of service in the San Francisco Police Department, Captain Michael Joseph Conboy, rendered irresponsible by his old failing, intoxication, shot and fatally wounded Bernard Lagan, nephew of Dr. John Lagan, and a prominent merchant of the Mission district, early this morning.

The injured man is lying in a critical condition between life and death at the St. Francis Hospital, where an operation, which failed to locate the bullet, was performed by Drs. J. H. O'Connor and W. Perry at 4 o'clock this morning.

Held Prisoner

In a cell in the women's ward at the city prison closely watched by Turnkey George McLaughlin, Captain Conboy lies in a maudlin stupor, brought on by drink, and but little could be got from him save inarticulate mumbles and protestations.

There are several versions of how the shooting occurred, but that accepted as nearest correct by Chief of Police Cook, who is making a personal investigation, and who has detailed Detectives Murphy and Gaughan on the case, is substantially as follows: Lagan and a friend, George Greenwood, of 214 Bush street, were returning from a party at 140 this morning, and when near the corner of Ellis and Millmore streets, almost directly in front of the Congress Hotel, they spied a man in the last stages of intoxication, holding on to a post in an effort to keep himself from falling to the ground.

Takes Pity on Him

"He's awfully drunk," replied Greenwood, and the young man passed on. Lagan, however, taking pity on Conboy's condition, although he did not know the identity of the man at that time, returned and tried to aid him. Conboy, suspiciously thinking that his would be helped was trying to rob him, hurled a denunciation at Lagan, and asked him if he was endeavoring to "roll a drunk." The young man passed on, and was going to leave Conboy to his fate, but the latter cried out to him, calling him several names.

Fires Two Shots

It was here that Conboy drew his revolver and fired two shots. His victim sank to the street, crying that he had been shot, and policemen Nye and O'Dowd, and a crowd of pedestrians rushed to the scene. The injured man was taken to the Central Emergency Hos-

STARTLING IS STORY TOLD OF GIRL'S MURDER

New York Police Believe That Chinese Is Concealing More Facts

SEARCH CONTINUED FOR THE MURDERER

Renewed Activity of Officers May Result in His Apprehension

NEW YORK, June 23.—The District Attorney's office gave out a statement today to some extent changing the official published reports giving the alleged circumstantial details of Chung Sin's confession in the Szei murder case. According to this statement the story told by Chung was not that he actually saw the murder committed or that he helped to bind up the trunk after Elsie Sigel's body had been placed in it. He said he went to his room at about 1 o'clock to lie down and that Leon came in soon afterward and said that Elsie was dead. "Chung asked Leon what had happened and the latter replied that Elsie had 'bitten her tongue and bled to death.'"

Chung said he went into the room and saw the dead body. Then he went out and when he came back he found Leon throwing clothing out of the trunk which he kept under the bed. Chung said he went out again and returning found the trunk bound with a rope in the room and the body of Elsie Sigel.

Body on Bed

Upon learning that the girl was dead Chung Sin, according to Yan Wick Nam, said he went with Leon to the latter's room. There on the bed was the body of Elsie Sigel. Chung refused to have any part in the disposal of the body. When he entered Leon's apartments there was a handkerchief bearing redish stains over the girl's mouth. Chung Sin came back later and went again with

Didn't See Killing

Yan Wick Nam, the interpreter who was present at the examination of Chung Sin by Assistant District Attorney Ward yesterday, declared today that there was no sign in the apartment that Chung Sin had said he witnessed the actual killing of Elsie Sigel by poison through a key hole. Yan Wick Nam said, on the contrary, that Chung Sin, absolutely maintained throughout the examination that he was not a witness of the crime.

Yan Wick Nam's account of Chung Sin's story is that the Chinaman said he was in his own room over the restaurant when Leon entered and said, "The girl is dead."

Hints at Poisoning

The maid said Mrs. Gould did say something about Trotter, but the witness was not allowed on Nicholson's objection, to say what it was. When Trotter was on the witness stand Shearn asked him if Mrs. Gould had said anything about putting poison in her coffee at the Blue Gap farm.

The maid testified that at the Bellevue-Stratford in Philadelphia Mrs. Gould, Miss Rosson, Farnum and Mrs. Sells had a party in Mrs. Gould's rooms one night and the following morning she found the apartments about 11 o'clock and took the ladies out. Miss Rosson had remained with Mrs. Gould over night on those two occasions.

Shearn asked the witness particularly if Mrs. Gould paid to the Sells family in Mrs. Gould's rooms one night and she drove the party back to New York. Mrs. Sells said they stopped for lunch and relays of horses on the way to New York and that Mrs. Gould did not indulge in any intoxicating drinks.

ARMY OF SERVANTS IS CALLED TO TESTIFY

Witnesses For Millionaire's Wife Deny She Is Hard-Drinker

NEW YORK, June 23.—With fifteen witnesses or more remaining to be called in rebuttal by counsel for Mrs. Katherine Clemons Gould at the trial of her suit for separation from her husband, Howard Gould there was little prospect at the beginning of court today that the case would be finished tonight. Justice Dowling announced his intention of holding a night session and insisted that all the rebuttal testimony, with the exception of that of the plaintiff herself, should be presented today.

Mr. Shearn, Mrs. Gould's counsel, continued the march of servants and friends of his client to the witness stand today in an effort to refute the testimony of intoxication and other events by the witnesses for the defense.

Edward Rouman, who said his business was dressmaking, testified that he was employed by Mrs. Osborne and had talked with Mrs. Gould frequently when she came to fix her gowns. He said he never noticed any words or conduct on her part which would indicate she was under the influence of intoxicants.

Over $20,000 For Dress

On cross-examination the witness said Mrs. Gould's account at Mrs. Osborne's in 1906 would amount to more than $20,000.

Mrs. Elsie W. Sells, an intimate friend of Mrs. Gould, who was a guest at the Gould estate and on the yacht Niagara many times since 1902, testified she had never seen Mrs. Gould intoxicated or boisterous and abusive in her language to the servants.

Mr. Shearn took the witness over the various cruises on the Niagara in 1902 and 1903, on which occasions the witness was Mrs. Gould's guest, and the stay at Ormond Beach and Palm Beach in 1905, and Mr. Sells testified the plaintiff had always conducted herself in a proper manner.

Praised Farnum

"Why, she said he was a good actor and had a future," Mrs. Sells answered. "She said if she returned to the stage she would like to be associated with Farnum."

"Did Mrs. Gould say she intended to return to the stage?"

"No."

"Did she say she would like to have Farnum for her partner on the stage, or her leading man?"

"No."

Mrs. Sells' maid followed and contradicted the testimony of some of the servants at Castle Gould, who testified that Mrs. Gould was with Mrs. Sells on various occasions. The maid was with Mrs. Gould's party at the Marlborough-Blenheim at Atlantic City when Mrs. Sells' daughters were in the party in 1905.

Actress With Mrs. Gould

The maid said that May Robson, the actress, was with Mrs. Gould at the hotel and spent the night in her apartments. She said no man there, she said. This was when the defense contended Farnum visited Mrs. Gould.

The maid testified in regard to the incident at Blue Gap Farm at Lynnhurst, when the carpenter, Trotter, testified he saw Mrs. Gould lying on the floor of the dining room intoxicated.

The witness said she was in the dining room when Mrs. Gould fell from her chair to the floor. Just after she had finished eating her dinner. She had only drunk a cup of coffee at the meal. The maid said she was frightened and ran to Mrs. Gould to revive her. Mrs. Gould's face was discolored and she was unconscious. When she regained consciousness she said she had been hit on the head.

She said to her room.

She said Mrs. Gould had said anything to the maid then about the carpenter Trotter and what she believed he had done.

Hints at Poisoning

The maid said Mrs. Gould did say something about Trotter, but the witness was not allowed on Nicholson's objection, to say what it was. When Trotter was on the witness stand Shearn asked him if Mrs. Gould had said anything about putting poison in her coffee at the Blue Gap farm.

The maid testified that at the Bellevue-Stratford in Philadelphia Mrs. Gould, Miss Rosson, Farnum and Mrs. Sells had a party in Mrs. Gould's rooms one night and the following morning she found the apartments about 11 o'clock and took the ladies out. Miss Rosson had remained with Mrs. Gould over night on those two occasions.

Shearn asked the witness particularly if Mrs. Gould paid to the Sells family in Mrs. Gould's rooms one night and she drove the party back to New York. Mrs. Sells said they stopped for lunch and relays of horses on the way to New York and that Mrs. Gould did not indulge in any intoxicating drinks.

MRS. HOWARD GOULD, MOST EXTRAVAGANT OF AMERICAN WOMEN

"The most extravagant woman" is the term that other women have applied to Mrs. Howard Gould since the revelations in her divorce suit. She spent $224,000 in one year, according to Delancey Nicoli, Mr. Gould's attorney.

This would be sufficient to feed 100,000 starving poor for seven whole days.

The sum of $224,000 in silver dollars, if laid out each coin edge to edge, would form a solid silver trail one-eighth of an inch thick and one and one-half inches in "diameter" from the corner of Fourteenth and Broadway to the North Berkeley line.

Piled one dollar upon another, $224,000 would make a solid silver column one and one-half inches thick, 2074 feet high, or eighteen times as high as the First National Bank building in Oakland.

Giving each man 100 pounds avoirdupois it would take 140 husky men to carry $224,000.

The total weight of $224,000 in silver dollars is seven tons, a fair load for six horses to pull.

FALLS ON STREET OVERCOME BY HEAT

Charles Dienst, a Harness-maker, Is Prostrated on Broadway

Charles Dienst, a harnessmaker, residing at 1308 Lincoln avenue, Alameda, and 74 years of age, was prostrated by the heat at the corner of Seventh and Broadway this afternoon about 2 o'clock.

Dienst was standing on the corner in the sun, waiting for a car, when he suddenly became dizzy and weak. He tried to step across the sidewalk to the building for support, but fell unconscious, striking his head against the pavement, and cutting a frightful gash across his scalp at the back of his head.

He was taken to the Receiving Hospital and although he regained consciousness, stilling his head against the pavement, and cutting a frightful gash across his scalp at the back of his head.

The surgeons at the hospital say they heat prostration in Oakland has been very rare for a number of years past, and this is the first one that any of them were able to recall.

Dienst's condition is not serious and he will recover.

KNOCKED FROM TRESTLE BY TRAIN

Lands in Mud and Is Nearly Strangled—Dies in Hospital

An unidentified man, apparently 60 years of age and probably a tramp, died at the Receiving Hospital at 12:45 o'clock today from a fractured skull sustained by being struck about 9:15 o'clock this morning by a Southern Pacific west-bound local train.

The accident occurred on the Seventh street trestle at Lake Merritt. The man evidently saw the train coming and crouched down among some cement barrels that were standing on the trestle between the tracks to get out of the way. He was suddenly struck by the train and the force of the impact threw him into the air and he fell head first into the mud under the trestle.

He was struck on the head, knocking him out of his senses. He lay there for some time before he was discovered by the police. He was taken to the hospital, but died before he could be revived.

The coroner's jury has not yet returned a verdict.

MRS. MAXWELL CALLED BY DEATH

Widow of Late Pioneer Hardware Merchant Passes Away at Age of 73

Mrs. Mary A. Maxwell, widow of the late C. L. Maxwell, pioneer hardware merchant of Oakland, died at her late residence, 1286 Fourth avenue, at 9 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Maxwell had been ill for a year, but the immediate cause of death was a stroke of paralysis.

Her son, John P. Maxwell, is the owner of the Maxwell Hardware Company of this city.

Mrs. Maxwell was a native of Rock Island, Ill., and was in her 73d year. She had made her home in Oakland for many years.

Besides her son, John P. Maxwell, deceased, she was survived by three daughters, Mary G. Maxwell, a teacher of English in the Berkeley High school; Lucy Maxwell, a teacher in the Lincoln school, and Edna, who is employed in her brother's store, and a son, William F. Maxwell, manager of the Moline Flour Company of Stockton.

DARING STAGE ROBBERY; 5 PASSENGERS HELD UP

Downieville Stage Stopped by Highwaymen During Daylight

CALMLY TAKES MONEY AND ALL VALUABLES

Escapes Into Hills With the Sheriff and Large Force in Pursuit

NEVADA CITY, June 23.—

The Downieville stage, which left this city early today for Sierra County, carrying five passengers, was held up and robbed by a masked highwayman a short time after leaving. The robber took $90 from the passengers and the Wells-Fargo Express box.

The mail pouch was not disturbed, and it is believed by the authorities that there was not much of value in the box belonging to the company.

There are rumors, however, that the highwayman made a big haul.

Posse on Trail

Sheriff Walker and a posse have taken up the trail. The hold-up occurred about five miles out.

The robber suddenly appeared in the road with a short-barreled shotgun and commanded the driver, John Goffet, to pull up. Then he compelled the passengers to stand in a line in front of the horses, with their hands up.

While he searched them his weapon was left carelessly on the ground, indicating that he had a confederate concealed in the neighborhood ready to shoot if necessary.

The passengers were W. Stewart, an insurance adjuster; J. Peterson, a miner; E. J. Suckforth, a millwright; Joseph Grass, a mine operator, and C. C. Clark, a tourist.

Macdonough Building Is Sold to Eastern Man By William G. Henshaw

William G. Henshaw, president of the Union Savings Bank and his wife Hettie T. Henshaw filed a deed with the County Recorder this morning which transfers absolutely to James S. Fearon of New York the title to the Macdonough building at the corner of Fourteenth street and Broadway which includes the Macdonough Theater. The estimated value of the property is about $600,000 but the terms of the sale are not stated in the deed the consideration being given as $10.

Mr. Charles P. Hall is the lessee of the Macdonough Theater. His lease has nine years yet to run. The Macdonough building has been a paying investment as the stores and offices rent readily. It was, therefore, it surprise when it was announced today that Mr. Henshaw had sold the property.

It is understood that Mr. Henshaw is completing his cement plant and is putting all his ready money into this venture in the south.

Mr. Henshaw met Mr. Fearon in New York recently and made the deal to sell him the building.

J. H. BLETHEN, EX-MAYOR OF OAKLAND, DIES AT 81

Former Prominent Figure in Local Public Life Came to California in the Year 1849.

At the age of 81 years the eventful life of James H. Blethen, a pioneer of this State and city and for two terms Mayor of Oakland, came to a close this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. P. Dolbier, on East Sixteenth street, near Tenth avenue.

Although advanced in years, Mr. Blethen continued active almost to the last, but of course he was not able to take as much interest in private or public affairs as was his wont when he was among the leading contractors and publicists in this section. He survived some of the most trying times in the political history, not alone of Oakland, but also of California, as he also has all the men who were pitted against him in the political world of more than a generation ago.

About this time Mr. Blethen began to take a great deal of interest in politics and, almost in the height of the Kearney and Chinese excitement, a man named Andrus was nominated for the position of Mayor of this city. Blethen was nominated in opposition by the Republicans and was elected by a large majority. In those times, the mayors of this city were elected yearly. Blethen did not receive the endorsement of the party which had first nominated and elected him, but the next year he accepted the nomination of the Democrats and ran against Henry Vrooman, then a political power in this city, and succeeded in being returned as his own successor in the mayoralty.

Second Compromise

It was in the last term of Blethen that the second compromise on the water-front property was signed between the city of Oakland and the railroad company and that compromise was signed by Mr. Blethen in behalf of the municipality.

The deceased was the husband of the late Georgietta Blethen, father of Mrs. A. J. Stirling and Mrs. Charles Leighton of Dover, Mass.; Edward, Frank, Charles, Howard, George Blethen and Mrs. F. P. Dolbier and Mrs. George A. Scott of Oakland. He was a member of Orion Lodge No. 133, I. O. O. F., of East Oakland, and of Oakland Lodge No. 185, F. and A. M.

The funeral will be held Friday next at 2:30 o'clock p. m. under the auspices of Masons at Masonic Temple. The Odd Fellows of Orion Lodge will take charge of the remains after leaving Masonic Temple, and will hold services at Mountain View Cemetery. Interment will be in the family plot at Mountain View.

pital, where Dr. Pinkham found that the bullet had penetrated the interspace middle axillary line, which in non-medical terms means that it entered the left side and ranged downward in the direction of the spine.

A little later Lagan was transferred to the St. Francis Hospital, where, when the operation was performed, the surgeons discovered that the lower part of the lung had been punctured, and the bullet was imbedded in the spine in such a position that they deemed it best not to extract it. It is feared that the young man will succumb to either pneumonia or peritonitis.

Dying Statement

After the shooting Captain Conboy was also conveyed to the hospital and lay helpless on the bed with Lagan while his dying statement reading as follows was taken.

"My name is Barney Lagan Jr. I believe I am going to die. I was walking along the street. An old man came along and called me names. Then he drew a gun and shot me. I do not know who he is. I never saw him before."

Captain of Police Gleason was summoned by telephone and took charge of Conboy, who was conveyed to the city prison by Sergeant Fraher, and his name placed on the detinue book.

Is Under Guard

He was kept in the women's ward all night, until this morning. It was deemed best to search him thoroughly, and he was stripped in the office of Sergeant Cogan, captain of the city prison.

League of the Cross Cadets Ready for Mid-Summer Dance

Reading from left to right are—Captain H. J. Leonard, Sergeant J. N. Gallagher and Lieutenant Jas. V. Fitzsimmons. —Show & Show Photo.

Arrangements are now complete for the mid-summer dance to be given by Company N, First Regiment, League of the Cross Cadets, at Maple Hill, Fourteenth and Webster streets, Friday evening, June 25th. No pains have been spared by the committee to make this affair eclipse all former efforts of the company. The hall will be beautifully decorated and the music first-class in every respect.

This affair is looked forward to with much interest by the many friends of Company N. A large number of tickets have been disposed of and already the success of the affair is assured.

The following committee have the affair in charge: Sergeant J. N. Gallagher, chairman; Corporal G. Brady, Corporal F. X. Smith, W. E. Schirmer, M. A. Henrich, L. A. Bischoff, Leo Mitchell and M. McWaters.

FOREMAN OF CALHOUN JURY IS POPULAR MAN

CONGRATULATED BY STRANGERS

Given Praise on All Sides For Verdict Returned by Majority

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—"I seem to see the most popular man in San Francisco," said George G. Gillespie, foreman of the Calhoun jury today. "Everywhere I go friends, acquaintances and even strangers stop me in the streets to shake hands with me."

"It is a great surprise to one after serving so long on a jury that was isolated to find nearly all of the people believing my way and expressing the greatest disappointment that the whole jury did not return a verdict of acquittal."

"So many of the people who have stopped to talk with me have said: 'Gillespie, we knew that your verdict would be the right one and we were mighty glad it was for acquittal, for every one knows that Calhoun is innocent.'"

"It makes me very happy to realize that a vote given according to my conscience has satisfied so many people and it is a compensation for the many weary weeks of service as a juror. And it is more than gratifying when people stop me on the street to congratulate me for the way I voted."

"I feel that it is an expression of popular sentiment and it is the best reward I could wish for my services to the people."

"A contractor has told me that no one has seen or heard of Blinn since the jury was dismissed. Several plaintiffs wanted to see him about some work but no one has been able to find him. Long before the testimony was concluded Blinn wanted to pinch my arm or kick my foot whenever he thought there was anything in the evidence against Calhoun. His opinion seemed to have been made up before the evidence was all in."

"My conscience dictated my action and now I am convinced that I did right when so many people shake me by the hand to congratulate me."

LOCAL BUILDERS MAY SEND BIDS

Y. M. C. A. Secretary Says Oakland Contractors Will Not Be Shut Out

There has been a great deal said recently about the Y. M. C. A. giving a preference to contractors on the other side of the bay in the matter of getting bids for the construction of the proposed new home of that organization in Oakland, and money for the completion of which was subscribed in this city and vicinity. The complaint was made by merchants of this place, who were given to understand, when they sought to bid upon the proposed structure, that the plans were over in San Francisco, where contractors of that place were figuring on them.

In speaking on this subject today, F. L. Starrett, the general secretary of the association, denied that there was any intention of shutting out any money for this association to bid any money for out of Oakland. The final bids will not be ready for several weeks yet, but Oakland men will be invited to bid. You will confer a great favor on the association if you will contradict any statement to the contrary."

STEEPLE JACK WILL PAINT CITY FLAGPOLE

At a meeting of the Board of Works this morning J. R. Beck was given the contract of painting the city flag pole at the junction of Telegraph avenue and Broadway for $15. The city is to furnish the paint and Beck the darning.

RAILROAD CLAIMS STREET.

The Board of Public Works this morning received a communication from the Oakland Harbor Development Company inquiring whether or not Ninth avenue was a closed street. The Southern Pacific Company claims the street is private property. Under the Stratton patents this association to bid any money for out of Oakland. The final bids will not be ready for several weeks yet, but Oakland men will be invited to bid. You will confer a great favor on the association if you will contradict any statement to the contrary."

Constipation and Its Causes

A Well Known Remedy.

Constipation is man's worst enemy and half the bodily ills are due to it. Nature meant that the bowels should be kept open, that we should have a free movement of the bowels and leave a worse condition than before. Why take such injurious and expensive drugs when we can obtain from an old-fashioned, cheaper bottle of Nature's own remedy, HUNYADI JÁNOS' Water, the famous Natural laxative? This water is bottled at the springs in Hungary and is used nearly half a century. One half a bottle of this water, taken within an hour a refreshing movement, gentle, natural and thorough, without any griping or other bad effects. As a whole bottle costs but a trifle, keep one always on hand.

Look out for unscrupulous druggists, who will substitute unless you ask for HUNYADI JÁNOS'.

SULLIVAN IS HIT BY FIST NOT A CLUB

It Now Seems That Charles W. Fay Was the Man Who Did It

STRUCK FROM FRONT, DECLARE HIS OPPONENTS

But This the Injured Politician Flatly Denies in a Letter

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—It is now stated almost positively that Frank L. Sullivan, the well-known attorney, was struck night before last in front of his office by Charles W. Fay, former secretary of the Board of Supervisors, who makes no denial of the charge. In fact, Fay states that he knows exactly who hit Sullivan, though he has not actually admitted that he is the man.

Furthermore, he insists that the attorney was not slugged from behind, but from the front and while his hands were free.

Sullivan makes denial.

This Sullivan, in a written letter, absolutely denies with a statement that he was not responsible for the word "crook" alleged to have been used in connection with Fay at a political meeting on the night of the assault. In his brief note Sullivan says:

"Editor of THE TRIBUNE, Oakland, Cal.: 'Dear Sir—I wish you to state for me, absolutely and unequivocally, that I was not attacked fairly, face-to-face, but was struck behind in the neck by a thug or assassin.'

"Fay must look to Rudolph Spreckels as the author of the remark 'crook.' I only quoted him, yours, etc."

The blow is said to be the outgrowth of long years of political enmity between Sullivan and the Phelan coterie, which Fay represents. The Phelan coterie is known to have a punch in their sleeve. There has been some gossip that it was Stanley Fay, "the bold boy of the north," who laid low the handsomest prize of the Sullivan—his handsomest man who ever was defeated for Congress. But it is Charles Fay, the least pugnacious of the clan, who seems to claim the honors and the glory.

Hits Head on Floor

He further intimates that the two-inch cut in the Sullivan scalp was not from a brick or a bludgeon, but that it came on the forehead after the Fay fist delivered in fair encounter, had laid the Sullivan low.

Today Sullivan would not comment in any way on the Fay statement, but Mrs. Sullivan declared again and again that her husband did not know who dealt the blow that opened his scalp and dyed his clothing with his precious blood.

"Mr. Sullivan doesn't know and didn't see who hit him," insisted Mrs. Sullivan, who denied her husband to those who desired to interview him. "He does not wish to discuss Mr. Fay's statement. He does not know his assailant."

The remarks which aroused the ire of Charles Fay were made by Francis J. Sullivan during an address at Young's Nickelodeon on Mission street, near Twenty-ninth, on last Thursday night.

The part of the address delivered by Sullivan directed against Fay and published in the newspapers is as follows:

"Now, I'll tell you why that city hall is being torn down, and I will leave it to your common sense whether I am right or wrong. James D. Phelan, with his co-worker, Rudolph Spreckels, controls that Board of Supervisors beyond the Phelan name. How Rudolph Spreckels, who is a friend of J. D. Phelan, who is so heavily interested in the Ocean Shore Railway. With the city hall out of the way and the civic center scheme foisted upon the people, J. D. Phelan and his associates would make millions. The stocks of the company he represents would make a sudden leap. Charles Fay was also to be benefited. And I remember now, when I mentioned the name, how Rudolph Spreckels told me in his office that he didn't see how Phelan could tie up with this man Fay—that he was a crook and no good, and several other things about him."

"But Phelan is tied up with him. He is doing everything in his power which is at present great, to put things in the way of Harvey and Fay to make great fortunes. I do not care to say."

"In face of the fact that we are heavily in debt in this city at this time, Phelan's supervisors are spending thousands to have that city hall torn down and they are giving the ruins to the contractors who they are paying money for doing the work. A lovely condition, I must say. The contractors are making thousands. Is this not a wasteful expenditure of the people's money?"

DR. HUNTINGTON NOT A GUEST OF CROSBY

There is no truth in the statement that Dr. Ralph A. Huntington, former prominent physician, who has just been released from San Quentin, because of the health board report that he has only a few more weeks to live, was a partner of or is to be a guest at the home of Dr. Daniel Crosby of Fruitvale.

A professional acquaintance of Dr. Crosby before his trial and conviction for having caused the death of his fiancée, the beautiful Jennie McKowan, four years ago, but since then they have had no intercourse and Huntington will not be a visitor at the Crosby home.

Hattie Frazer Denies Charge
That She Wished Spouse
in Coffin

FILES CROSS-COMPLAINT
TO SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Vows She Isn't the Soul-Mate of Roomer, Aged Seventy Years

Denouncing as false and malicious her husband's allegations that she told him she wished to see him in his coffin, Hattie Frazer, of Fruitvale, today filed a cross-complaint for divorce against her husband, John Frazer, who she charged with molesting her. She also denies her husband's imputation that she had transferred her affection to one Peter Clark, who once lived with them, that she ever threatened to shoot or poison her husband, or throw acid in his eyes, or that she ever said to her husband that she wished to see him in his coffin.

Mrs. Frazer states that she is an old gentlewoman, that she is a widow, and that she is a native of Scotland. She states that she has been married to John Frazer for twenty-three years, and that she has three children. She states that she has been living with her husband for the last five years, and that she has been living with him in a rooming house for the last three years. She states that she has been living with him in a rooming house for the last three years, and that she has been living with him in a rooming house for the last three years.

THROUGH TRANSOM WATCHED. CHINESE SLAY ELSE SIGEL

NEW YORK, June 23.—Details of just how Elsie Sigel, granddaughter of General Franz Sigel, a Chinese missionary, was brutally slain in the room of Leon Ling, became known today after Chung Sing, his room mate, had been subjected to thirty hours of the "third degree."

Inspector McCafferty of the detective bureau, Captain Carey of the homicide bureau, and a half dozen detectives who had been working on the case, surrounded the tired Chinese in the office of Assistant District Attorney Ward at the time the grisly tale was revealed. Suddenly Mr. Ward started Chung Sing by pointing his finger at him and crying in a loud tone:

"You killed Elsie Sigel."

"You've got her snapper," exclaimed

Captain Carey.

"I got no ring of Elsie," replied the Chinese.

The Third Degree

Then Mr. Ward fired one question after another at the Chinese, going into the murder in every phase.

"When did you last see Elsie?"

asked Mr. Ward.

"I see her that morning."

"What time was that?"

"In the room."

"Where were you?"

"In my own room, next to Leon's."

"What time was that?"

"It was about half past twelve,

noon."

"How do you know that?"

Fixes Time

"Because I went down to the restaurant, and I know it was the time."

"What were you doing in your room when you first found out Elsie was in Leon's room?"

"I was rubbing my hands, washing them."

"What was this?"

"Wednesday, June 9."

"What time was that?"

"It was the light before."

On that night Chung Sing and Leon

Ling were at a party given at the girl's room.

"How did you know Elsie was in Leon's room?" pursued Mr. Ward.

"I heard a noise."

"What did you do?"

Through Keyhole

"I go to the keyhole in the door between Leon's room and mine and I see her there."

"Through the keyhole?"

"That's it."

"What did you see?"

"I had heard some noise and then when I look I see Elsie lying on the bed."

Feet Were Bare

"Oh, yes, I see them. They did not have stockings on them. Elsie's feet were just bare. No shoes or stockings."

"Did you see the handkerchief

then?"

"Yes, it is on the floor. I see blood on the floor. I ask Leon what it is,

and he says: 'Elsie bit her tongue.'"

"Didn't that make you suspicious that something had happened to Elsie?"

"I didn't know anything," he replied.

Chung told them that he left the room and went to his own room, where he stayed a short while.

"When I come back there is no more Elsie," said Chung. "I don't know where she is and I don't ask

Leon. The trunk there and it have ropes on it. Leon is using the rope and he asked me to help him. I don't know what is in the trunk, and I help him tie, oh, so many knots."

"Do you mean to say you did not know Elsie was in that trunk?" demanded Mr. Ward.

"Chung did not know it," replied the Chinese.

The assistant district attorney leaned over and stared Chung in the face. The Chinese met his gaze for a moment, and then his face broke into a grin.

Denies Assisting

"No, Chung tells the truth," said

the Chinese. "He would not lie."

"Didn't you help put Elsie in that trunk?"

"Chung did not. Leon must have put Elsie in the trunk."

"Now, I want you to tell me the truth," roared Captain Carey, turning suddenly upon Chung. "You help put that rope around Elsie's neck."

Chung leaped from the chair and dashed to the radiator at the window of Mr. Ward's office, where he sat glaring wildly at Captain Carey.

"What are you doing?" asked Mr.

Ward. "Elsie is in the trunk," shouted the Chinese. "I tell you."

You find him. He will tell you what I say. I see her on the bed and then when I come back she is gone. I don't know where."

Fled From City

Chung Sing then told of becoming frightened and going to Chinatown to see his brother, who obtained for him the position as cook at a country estate near Amsterdam, where he was arrested.

Parts of the statement by Chung

Sing were not divided by the police and it is understood that these deal with the possible flight of Leon Ling.

During the questioning of Chung

Sing, hurried messages were sent to several officials and it was believed that

Chung had told where Leon might be found. Inspector McCafferty admitted that an important arrest was expected today.

"You wanted to see what was going on?"

"Sure."

"What was it you saw then?"

"I see Elsie lying there and she was scuffling with Leon. He lie with his hands on Elsie, like a neck, and she

she try to get away."

"What did you do then?"

"I get upon a chair and look over the transom so I see better."

"What happened?"

Bloody Handkerchief

"Elsie try to cry, I guess. Leon had a handkerchief in her mouth. I see blood on the handkerchief."

Chung was told to show how Leon held the handkerchief to the girl's mouth. He placed his hand at his mouth as though jamming something in it.

"It was all in her mouth," he said.

"Did you see her clothes?"

"Her waist this way," replied Chung, tugging at his coat lapels.

"How do you know it was Elsie's handkerchief that Leon used?"

Chung hesitated and finally replied that he "just knew it."

"Did you see it after that?"

"Yes, on the floor. It had blood on it."

"Was all this while you were looking over the transom?"

"No, I go downstairs to the restaurant when I see Elsie there first.

Then I soon came up. When I get up

I look in Leon's room and see Elsie lying there. She was on the bed, all still."

"What did you do next?"

"I got up on the transom again and I see Leon go to the closet and go into his trunk. He pull boxes and other things from the trunk. I knew it was Leon's trunk. It was there all the time since Leon had the room, about six months ago. Leon threw the boxes over the floor and clear out the trunk. I saw it empty then and he took the trunk and pull it into the middle of the room. Then

I got scared and I go down stairs."

"Pretty soon I hear Leon call me."

Chung continued. "I go up and see what he want me for. I see Elsie lying on the bed on her back. She does not speak. I couldn't see if she was dead or not. I saw her pull the bed clothes up over her head, like this,

like this," said Chung, indicating.

"Was the rope around her neck

then?"

"I don't know. I saw before that

Leon take the rope out of his closet.

I don't know then what it is for."

"Could you see Elsie's feet below

the bed clothes?"

Feet Were Bare

"Oh, yes, I see them. They did not have stockings on them. Elsie's feet

were just bare. No shoes or stock-

"Did you see the handkerchief

then?"

ANNOUNCEMENTS

This Is the Biggest Laughing Hit of the Season

AL WESTON AND IRENE YOUNG, WHO ARE LARGELY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE BIG LAUGHING SUCCESS, "THE NEW REPORTER," AT THE BELL THIS WEEK.

One of the breeziest acts seen here this year is that of Al H. Weston, Irene Young & Company at the Bell. This company is larger and more capable than the usual run of vaudeville troupes, including five members exclusive of a sup, who is pruned in as a policeman. The act itself is pure nonsense, consisting of a bundle of gags that might be flat in less capable hands and whose humor lies largely in their simplicity. Many of them are, as is intended, extremely puerile as to be seemingly ridiculous. The nonsensical bits follow each other in swift succession, and the spectator is almost breathless trying to keep up with them. Al H. Weston is an unusually funny humor-maker, and he is ably supported by Miss Irene Young. Included in the act is some good singing, concluding with a very catchy bit. The popularity of the act is evidenced by the consistent applause of the audience at its termination. It is a mix-up of detectives, the newspaper man and a newspaper woman, each and all of the parties seeking to best each other, and nearly all succeeding. The fun is fast, the skit is bright, and the audience falls helpless before it. It is full of original and merry conceits, which are made incidental, and some good singing, and a droll feast of wit and jollity is built around the thread of a story. The concoction is one of those almost impossible to be seen several times. It is quick in action and full of hearty laughs. Every act in the excellent bill at the Bell this week is above the average summer vaudeville production. No lowering of standard here with a very catchy bit. The popular-

TELLS WORK OF HARBOR CONGRESS

Union of Waterway Interests Means Final Success, Declares John Fox

In an address before the members of the Chamber of Commerce at their regular monthly meeting last night, John A. Fox, special director of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, urged local assistance in sending delegates to the congress next December. He said: "By the complete and powerful union of all waterway interests throughout the entire country the most wonderful progress has been made in the awakening of public sentiment to the needs of waterway improvement upon a broad business plane. We have been able to send a thoroughly organized body to spend in a carefully planned campaign of education during the last three years $75,000. This sum has been raised by voluntary subscriptions from the warships located on the waterways everywhere throughout the country, and I am glad to state that Oakland contributed $1,600 as her share to that fund last year."

Urges Co-Operation

"My mission to the Coast this year is to secure the co-operation of those cities that have not heretofore united in the Congress in its fight. When the policy of a definite appropriation has been established the Pacific Coast will reap as great a benefit as any part of the country. Work on the harbors at San Diego, San Pedro, Oakland, Humboldt bay, Portland, Aberdeen, Olympia, Tacoma, Seattle and Bellingham will, when once planned by the engineers, receive the amounts needed for completing them in a thorough manner. The rivers that can be improved for serviceable navigation, such as the San Joaquin, the Sacramento, the Snake and the Columbia, will then be treated as Germany has treated the Rhine, the Oder and others of her rivers, and an enormous amount of freight that cannot be moved because of the cost of rail transport will be brought out from the interior."

"Omitting the 3,500,000 tons of commerce handled by Seattle and the 5,675,000 by San Francisco, two natural harbor cities, where little or no improvement has been made, $18,540,000 expended on thirteen harbors from San Diego to Bellingham, has assisted in building up an annual commerce of 15,664,000 tons, valued at nearly $400,000,000, or, in other words there is $20 worth of commerce every year for every $1 spent in the whole history of these works by the government."

BOULD FERRIES TO RUN IN SEPT.

Western Pacific Asks For Accommodations For Boats in San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—A communication from Virgil Bogue, chief engineer of the Western Pacific Railroad Company, was read at the meeting of the Harbor Commissioners Monday, announcing that the Gould ferries would be ready to operate a ferry line by September 1, and asking for accommodations in the ferry depot.

The Western Pacific asks to have its slips in the center of the ferry depot. This request will probably not be granted, as the commissioners have for some time had under consideration plans for reducing the number of these slips and assigning landings at other parts of the front for ferries displaced.

New Landing Proposed

That the new line will be well taken care of is assured, however, as plans have been made for the construction of another ferry depot at the foot of Mission street to which it is the purpose of the board to assign the Western Pacific. The new depot will be connected with the present ferry building by a covered way.

The secretary of the board was directed to inform Chief Engineer Bogue that the Western Pacific would be assigned to the slip now used by the creek route ferry until the construction of suitable permanent quarters.

The board also gave its consent to the Associated Construction Company assuming the contract for the construction of section 8 of the seawall, which was awarded to the American Construction Company.

SEEK PARDON FOR RACE TRACK MEN

NEW ORLEANS, June 23.—Formal application for the pardon of Placide Frere, W. W. List and R. M. Sheffield, convicted of violating the Locke law by conducting a "test" race at City Park track here, a few months ago, was among the petitions submitted to the State Board of Pardons yesterday. Several citizens who led the fight for the prosecution of the Locke law signed the petition.

PLACED UNDER ARREST. ST. PETERSBURG, June 23.—Nicholas Yusevich-Kraskovsky, one of the leaders of the League of Russian people, who was accused of organizing the murder of Deputy Minister in Finland in 1908, has been arrested in Turv Province, where he was living under a false name. He will be brought to St. Petersburg and turned over to the Finnish authorities.

CORPORATIONS TO BE FORCED INTO PUBLICITY

President Outlines Plans For Placing Tax on the Trusts

INCOMES LESS THAN $5000 NOT TAXED

Drastic Features Proposed by Taft in Handling Gigantic Concerns

WASHINGTON, June 23.—President Taft's plan for a tax on corporations and the incidental control of these corporations through publicity was outlined in its entirety last night at the White House, where the President summoned in conference the Republican members of the Senate Finance Committee, Attorney General Wickersham and Senator Dittus. Joint authors of the proposed law, were also present at the conference.

It is a more drastic measure than any of the forecasts have made it appear. Complete publicity of all the financial operations of all big corporations is provided for, and the bill creates a penalty in the shape of both fine and imprisonment for any corporation official who makes a false return to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to whom will be entrusted the collection of the proposed tax.

Here Is the Plan

The definite aim of the plan is to collect an excise tax of two per cent on the net income of corporations. By net income under the terms of the bill, is meant the balance that is left after deducting from the gross of the corporation—maintenance and operation and interest actually paid on bonded or other indebtedness.

This means that bonds will be excluded from taxation, but it will be excluded on the ground that it is the proper time that this exception is made to prevent the stockholders from being subjected to dual taxation.

Full Tax Return

The corporation will be compelled to include in a statement to the government the amount of all sums paid within the year for federal, state, county or city taxes and these amounts will be included in the gross earnings of the company, but deducted from the final amount on which the government tax of 2 per cent will have to be paid.

It is the publicity feature of the plan to which the President has given the greatest attention. This feature is declared by his friends who may be described as belonging to the Roosevelt group of Senators to be as complete and comprehensive as it is possible to devise.

Another important feature is the fact, as has previously been pointed out, in these dispatches, that all corporations whose net income is less than $5,000 per year shall be exempt from the payment of the tax. Not even these corporations, however, will be exempt from reporting their gross and net incomes to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

All Must Make Report

All must report alike, and the Commissioner, in assessing the tax, will see the exemption of those who fall within the $5,000 proviso. This plan has been devised in order to secure publicity as regards every corporation.

To avoid the constitutional restriction against unequal taxation which might be urged against the exemption of the smaller corporations, this plan has been devised in order to secure publicity as regards every corporation. To avoid the constitutional restriction against unequal taxation which might be urged against the exemption of the smaller corporations, this plan has been devised in order to secure publicity as regards every corporation.

TO GIVE SACRED SONG RECITALS

Special Music Planned for St. Mary's For First and Third Sundays

Commencing with Sunday, July 4, special music will be rendered at the 11 a. m. mass on the first Sunday in each month and in the evening at 7:45 every third Sunday in the month at St. Mary's Church, Eighth and Jefferson streets, by the Oakland Conservatory of Music directed by Professor Adolf Gregory. It is intended to render the following works at the 11 a. m. mass:

July 4, Haydn's Imperial Mass.
August 1, Weber's Mass in G.
September 5, Schubert's Mass in F.
October 2, Gounod's Messe St. Cecilia.
November 7, Hummel in B flat.
December 5, Bach's Mass in B minor.
December 25, Chertinski in C.
In 1910-January, Haydn's first in B flat.
February, Schubert in G.
March, Palestrina's Mass in B.
April, Chopin's Messe Solennelle in F.
Easter, Beethoven in C.
May, Dvorak in D.
June, Mozart in C.
At the evening services on the third Sunday in each month commencing July 18, at 7:45 p. m., a thirty-minute sacred recital will be given, consisting of excerpts from the following masterpieces: Rossini's Stabat Mater, Haydn's Passion, Handel's Messiah, Bach's Passion, Words, Mendelssohn's Lobgesang, Meyerbeer's First Psalm, Mercantini's Seven Words Gounod's More et Vita, Astorga's Stabat Mater and Pergolesi's Stabat Mater.

Like Old Recitals

This series of sacred recitals will be along the lines of those originated by St. Philip Neri in the Oratory at Rome in the sixteenth century, which gave to the style of composition the title of oratorio.

The choir and orchestra will consist of seventy-five vocalists and instrumentalists.

Singers or orchestra players who are acquainted with the works proposed and who are not attached to other choirs are cordially invited to participate in these recitals. Rehearsals will be held at the Oakland Conservatory of Music, Twelfth and Jackson streets, every Friday in each week, at 8:30 p. m.

VENETIAN NIGHT ON LAKE MERRITT

Boat Parade to Be Feature of Local July Fourth Celebration

At a meeting of the Fourth of July Committee, held last night in the rooms of the Merchants' Exchange, Chairman P. M. Fisher of the Literary Exercises committee announced the following program, which will be rendered at Lincoln Park, Alameda, at 1 p. m.:

Invocation, by an Alameda pastor to be selected; vocal music, by quartette composed of Harry A. Perry, Frank Andrew, Carl Anderson, John de P. Telle. Declaration of Independence, read by Peter J. Crosby of Hayward; music by the quartette; "Drake's Address," by T. O. Crawford, solo, the Star Spangled Banner, Mrs. Charles W. Chubb, address, A. H. Elliott, music by the band.

Venetian Night

Oakland will hold its evening celebration on Oakland on the shores of Lake Merritt. Chairman Fred Sinclair of the committee will offer cash prizes of $100, $75, $50 and $25 for the best decorated boats in the parade which it is proposed to hold on the lake, the event being in the nature of a "Venetian Night." Motor power for the boats will be furnished. A myriad of electric lights will be strung artistically about the shores and hundreds of floats decorated with lanterns will enhance the beauty of the scene. This parade of boats on Lake Merritt will undoubtedly attract an immense throng. City officials will occupy a gaily-decorated barge in the middle of the lake and award the prizes. Bands of music will also be stationed in various positions about the lake and the air will ring with patriotic and stirring music.

Fireworks Display

A pretentious display of fireworks will also be held on the eastern shore of the lake, and among the pieces secured will be number one beautiful and original set pieces and mechanical devices.

The Fourth of July Committee voted to donate $100 to the Reliance Club, which will be used by the latter organization in advertising the Fourth of July celebration in Oakland. The athletic club proposes to provide a hand next Saturday night and also the night of the 3d of July, when it will hold its parade of automobiles, and at these times will carry banners announcing the celebration to be given by Oakland. This, it is believed, will have the effect of keeping thousands of Oaklanders in their home city who would otherwise journey to other points of interest.

MEN DELEGATES LIVING IN TENTS

German - American Turners Pouring Into Cincinnati by Thousands

CINCINNATI, June 23.—With bands playing "Wacht Am Rhein" and "The Star Spangled Banner," thousands of German-American Turners arrived every hour to-day to attend the thirtieth meeting of the North American Gymnastic Union or Turnbund. The active men turners are living in tents, while the women turners are at the hotels. Before tomorrow 3,000 active turners will have been quartered in the tents. Chicago has sent one of the largest delegations for the competitive drills, there being from 600 to 800 actives for the various exercises, with a woman's class of 400. Motorcycle races and foot races were given on the first night of the festival.

President Taft sent a telegram to his brother, Charles P. Taft, expressing his regret at not being able to attend and extending cordial greetings to the turners.

Denver and Los Angeles have entered the race for the next turnfest.

GONE THREE DAYS; SAYS SHE WAS ON A WALK

BERKELEY, June 23.—Mrs. T. Roseberry, who disappeared from the home of Mrs. N. B. Miller of 3139 Lewiston avenue, where she was employed as a domestic and who, it was known, was dependent and melancholy over the death of her husband, appeared at the home of her sister-in-law in San Francisco yesterday, stating that she had been on a long walk. She had not been heard of for three days, and it was feared that she had committed suicide.

Reduces Fat a Pound a Day

Rengo Has Solved the Problem of Safe Fat Reduction Without Starvation Diet or Tiresome Exercises.

A quick, harmless reducer of fat called Rengo has come into popular use which for reduces any method or treatment heretofore used.

Rengo is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take, and it is chewed like fruit or candy. It causes a gradual, harmless but effective reduction in weight, and without leaving wrinkles, which are nearly always present after taking drugs and other dangerous materials commonly called "anti-fats."

There is nothing "just as good" as Rengo. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per full sized box, or by mail prepaid, by The Rengo Co., 2356 Rengo building, Detroit, Mich. We will gladly send you a trial package free by mail, if you will write them direct to Detroit; no free packages at drug stores.

Rengo is for sale and recommended in Oakland by The Oak Leaf Club, Thirteenth and Broadway, Washington and Tenth streets, 611 Thirteenth street, Sixteenth and Macchia.

Anty Drudge Advises the Fireman.

Fireman—"Morning, Anty Drudge! You had better go over to Mrs. Slims; she's terribly burned."

Anty Drudge—"How did it happen?"

Fireman—"Over-heated stove. Trying to get the fire hot enough to boil her clothes. My wife was badly burned last week doing the same thing."

Anty Drudge—"Yes, I'll go right over. But look here, young man! Get your wife Fels-Naptha. Then she won't have to boil the clothes. Just use lukewarm or cool water; let the clothes soak for half an hour; that's all there is to it."

Friendship begins with acquaintance. All Fels-Naptha wants is an introduction and it will become your boon companion in laundry and kitchen.

We are advertising to get Fels-Naptha that introduction into new homes.

Then we depend on the soap itself to keep it there.

If Fels-Naptha wouldn't do what we claim; if it wouldn't wash clothes quicker and better in cool or lukewarm water without hard labor or boiling; if it wouldn't save time, work, fuel and health—would over a million women use it every washday?

Not much.

But Fels-Naptha will do these things and more; has done them and is doing them for more and more progressive women every year.

Follow the easy directions on the back of the red and green wrapper.

her parents, who resided in Arcata, the understanding being that she would not be absent from home more than three weeks. Although she wrote letters repeatedly asking for money and promising to return at once, he responded, and then she would come back at him with some excuse for not keeping her promise. Finally the correspondence ceased entirely and Rogers has never set eyes on her since she left. He said that he gave his wife all the money he earned, with the exception of just enough to live on himself, her allowance amounting to from $250 to $300 a month, and sometimes more than that. "It all went for some foolishness or nonsense," Rogers explained.

—Bushnell Photo.

The ladies of St. Augustine's parish are planning an elaborate affair for the benefit of the church building fund, to be given at Native Sons' Hall, Berkeley, Saturday evening, June 26. A unique feature of the evening will be a tamale supper, which will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock. During the supper a musical program will be given under the direction of Mrs. W. Chowen, organist of St. Augustine's, and Miss May Fitzgibbon.

ERLINGER'S BAND TO BE AT IDORA

Famous New York Players to Follow the Navassars at Park

A musical treat is in store for those who go to Idora Park this evening. Herman Bollstedt, one of the greatest cornetists in the country and at present musical director of the Navassar Band, has consented to render a number of solos. Bollstedt has long been connected with musical organizations, both as player and director, and is known as a cornetist of the first rank and a musician of great ability.

For years he was first cornetist in the famous band of the late Patrick Gilmore, and was also a member of the well-known Sousa organization, which toured England a number of years ago. Bollstedt has met with great success as director of the Navassars and the music lovers who frequent Idora are anxious to hear the renderings which made Herman Bollstedt well known before he turned his attention to directing. He will render "American Boy," a polka brilliant and a popular song introducing numerous cadenzas and variations.

Erlinger to Follow

The Navassars will appear at Idora for one week more, after which they go direct to Canada. Following the Navassars comes Erlinger and his famous New York Band. Another great attraction which will open with the Erlinger Band is Bert Morphy, "the man who sings to beat the band." Morphy is one of the greatest out-door attractions obtainable and has made a great hit in the East. His appearance at the Idora will mark his initial performance on the coast. He renders popular songs with the accompaniment of a forty-piece band, his wonderful voice having five times the carrying power of the average vocal mechanism.

Beginning Sunday, Kennedy's X. I. T. Ranch Wild West Show opens at the park for a limited engagement. The show is complete in every detail and most interesting performance is promised.

WILL ADDRESS VOTERS ON SEWER QUESTION

ELMHURST, June 23.—A mass meeting will be held tonight under the auspices of the Grand-avenue and Hillside Improvement Club at Odd Fellows' Hall for the purpose of discussing the pending sewer bond issue of $75,000, the election of which comes off on July 10. Professor Tibbets of the University of California will address the meeting on "Sanitation." Other good speakers will be provided and a big crowd of voters of the community will be present to hear this vital issue discussed.

The campaign for sewers in Elmhurst is being conducted quietly but effectively. A large amount of literature has been prepared by the committee and circulated. No opposition to speak of is apparent. A series of mass meetings will be held from now on to election day. The club is congratulating itself upon gaining such a well-known authority on sanitation as Professor Tibbets for tonight's meetings, and feels that his words will have weight with those seeking enlightenment on the subject.

Old Fashioned Circus Keeps Orpheum in Roar of Laughter

ELLA NOWLAN with the "Night at the Circus" at the Oakland Orpheum.

The old-fashioned circus at the Oakland Orpheum has added more to the gaiety of nations since its opening last Sunday than theater-goers could possibly have supposed existed in vaudeville anywhere else. The circus as a laugh-maker has put every other vaudeville act that has ever appeared here completely in the shade. The theater is filled with children and their parents at the matinee, all drawn to the big playhouse by the magnet of the word "circus," and at night the adults throng the vaudeville temple, getting their enjoyment in just about the same measure that the children do at the matinee.

The "circus" is a big winner. The man who dared to reproduce in miniature an old-fashioned circus show certainly hit upon an absolute novelty in vaudeville. The wonder is that nobody ever thought of it before.

They Are All There

The circus parade that gallops across the stage as a preliminary to the real circus act is itself as big a "barker" as any show that has ever been put on anywhere else. The circus as a laugh-maker has put every other vaudeville act that has ever appeared here completely in the shade. The theater is filled with children and their parents at the matinee, all drawn to the big playhouse by the magnet of the word "circus," and at night the adults throng the vaudeville temple, getting their enjoyment in just about the same measure that the children do at the matinee.

FAVOR PLANTING TREES - ON ISLANDS IN BAY

At a meeting of the Merchants' Exchange last night Secretary Wilbur Walker was instructed to petition the Federal government and the proper municipal authorities about the bay, recommending the proposed forestation of the islands of San Francisco Bay. This movement had its inception with the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce and is being met favorably by all the civic bodies interested, who are nearly all forwarding similar petitions to the proper officials.

The forestation plan calls for the planting of suitable trees on all the islands of the bay as a means of beautifying the same. The trees most suitable to the islands will be selected from the material to be furnished.

RICH WIFE SUES POOR HUSBAND

Niece of Frank Pixley, Heir to $500,000, Wants a Divorce

LOS ANGELES, June 22.—Frank Pixley, author of "King Dodo" and other light operas, is according to testimony given in Judge James' court today, more successful as a writer than when he attempted to straighten out the matrimonial difficulties of two young people.

Mrs. Margaret Sandgren, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Pixley, said to be their sole heir, is suing Carl Sandgren, a young bank clerk, for divorce. The couple were married in 1906. Sandgren's salary of $80 a month was insufficient and at the end of eleven months the young wife had used her own money for personal expenses until more than $1000 was spent. When money ran short, love flew out the window, according to the testimony of both the plaintiff and defendant.

Mr. Pixley told the husband, according to the testimony, that they would agree to take care of Mrs. Sandgren for a year, and if at the end of that time he "convinced" she could return to him. "This they both agreed to do, but the suit resulted instead."

Sandgren stated yesterday that he blames the Pixleys for all his trouble. "The Pixleys have no children," he said, "and they have made Margaret their heir to $500,000. They wanted her to marry a wealthy man in the East, and they do not like me because I am poor. They interfered all the time, and the result was that we separated."

PORTLAND, Ore., June 22.—Declaring she had been deceived by Harry B. Lankenmeier, a Portland painter whom she came from Birmingham, Ala., to marry, Miss Helen Perry today threw her diamond engagement ring as far as she could in the street.

"We were sweethearts in Toledo, Ohio, five years ago," she said, "and when I moved to Portland, I went to Birmingham. We corresponded regularly, and six months ago he came here. He was attentive for several days and then he left town. I'm going to find him and when I do, he'll suffer."

ITCHING SEEMED TO BE INCURABLE

Terrible Red Patches on Face and Arms Made Victim Ashamed to Be Seen—Suffered Intensely for Ten Months—Expert Treatment Gave No Relief—Two Sets of the

CUTICURA REMEDIES ENTIRELY CURED HER

"About two years ago I contracted eczema and suffered intensely for about ten months. At first I thought I would scratch myself to pieces. My face and arms were covered with large red patches, so that I was ashamed to be seen. I suffered intensely for ten months—Expert Treatment Gave No Relief—Two Sets of the Cuticura Remedies.

"I tried every known remedy, with the same result. I was advised to go to a doctor who was a specialist in skin diseases. He gave me a prescription, and I tried them as the last resource, and I am very glad that I did, for after four or five applications of Cuticura Ointment I was relieved of my unbearable itching. I used two sets of the Cuticura Remedies (Soap, Ointment and Pills), and I am completely cured. I always recommend Cuticura to any one that is suffering and in every case it seems to cure. Miss Barbara Kral, 629 Mt. Pleasant Ave., Highlandtown, Md., Jan. 9, '08."

S.S.S. NATURE'S S.S.S. PERFECT TONIC

Something more than an ordinary tonic is required to restore health to a weakened, run-down system; the medicine must possess blood-purifying properties as well, because the weakness and impurity of the circulation is responsible for the poor physical condition. The blood does not contain the necessary quantity of rich, red corpuscles, and is therefore a weak, watery stream which cannot afford sufficient nourishment to sustain the system in ordinary health. A poorly nourished body cannot resist disease, sickness when the use of a good tonic would have prevented the trouble. In S. S. S. will be found both blood-cleansing and tonic qualities combined. It builds up weak constitutions by removing all impurities and germs from the blood, thus supplying a certain means for restoring strength and invigorating the system. The healthful, vegetable ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed make it splendidly fitted to the needs of those systems which are delicate from any cause. It is Nature's Perfect Tonic, free from any harmful minerals, a safe and pleasant acting medicine for persons of every age. S. S. S. rids the body of that tired, worn-out feeling so common at this season, improves the appetite and digestion, tones up the stomach, acts with pleasing effects on the nervous system, and rejuvenates every portion of the body.

Prosperity and Independence

The dollar saved—not the dollar spent—leads to prosperity and independence. The wisdom of saving money is admitted even by the most thoughtless spendthrifts. But "it's so much easier to spend than deny trifles" that they drift along the course of least resistance.

Few of Miners Are Now Being Rescued by Their Comrades

WEHRUM, Pa., June 23.—As a result of an explosion in Mine No. 4 of the Lackawanna Coal and Coke Company here today, three miners are known to be dead, six fatally injured, twenty-five seriously, while it is feared that sixty-five men, believed to be still in the mine, may be buried alive.

The mine is burning fiercely at several places and deadly black damp is pouring from the mouth, effectually preventing systematic rescue work.

Large quantities of oxygen and oxygen tanks have been ordered from the Cambrian Steel Company of Johnstown, Pa., and the United States government mining and testing station at Pittsburgh. Just what caused the explosion is not known, but it probably resulted from an accumulation of gas. The scenes about the mine this afternoon are pathetic. Relatives and friends of the victims are hysterically weeping and retarding greatly the work of rescue.

Calls for Help

Thirteen said that following the explosion they seemed to be a flash and then all was darkness. Calls for help and groans were heard by them as they made their way to the entrance, staggering over the bodies of comrades who had fallen with the first shock.

Superintendent W. N. Johnson, of the mine, said later that explosion from some unknown cause, seems to have been worse in a portion of the mine than we recently opened up. We don't yet know the extent of the accident, but we think the death list will be a long one and the list of those injured much larger.

ESTIMATES FAR ABOVE RECEIPTS

Cost of Running City With $1-500,000 Income Fixed at $2,000,000

While all of the estimates of the various departments of the city government for the ensuing year are not yet in the hands of City Auditor Gross, the present indications are that there will be a slash of somewhere between $500,000 and $700,000. The requests of the departments will be considerably in excess of $2,000,000, while the total income will be in the neighborhood of $1,500,000.

Among the estimates which have never heretofore figured in the budget are those of the Park Commission, the city museum and the Playground Commission. In round numbers, the Park Commission asks $394,000; the Playground Commission wants $33,700, and the City Museum demands $17,500, making approximately $445,200 which has never been figured before.

City Auditor Gross will be compelled to cut the expenses of the other departments to make up this amount.

The Free Public Library asks that $64,235.30 be set aside for its use.

The fire department estimate is not in, but will be in the neighborhood of $300,000. Other departmental estimates are expected by Auditor Gross in a few days.

Overcome by Heat,
Dies During 'Hike'

HAYWARD, June 23.—Overcome by the heat while tramping the hills near Moroccco valley, twelve miles from Hayward, John Dickson, a San Francisco blacksmith, died beneath the burning rays of the sun yesterday.

His body was found by a hunter, who stumbled upon the remains in a hayfield. The body was taken to the morgue, where an inquest will be held.

Dickson was 50 years of age, and leaves a widow. He had been spending his vacation with James Ricard, a farmer of Moroccco valley, near whose place he expired.

SIX ARMED MEN
STEAL 174,000,000
GALLONS OF WATER

COLORADO SPRINGS, June 23.—Six armed men, supposedly from Victor, Colo., early this morning held up Caretaker Arthur of the Colorado Springs water system, opened the flood gates on Pike's Peak and turned 174,000,000 gallons of water into the Victor reservoir.

Caretaker Arthur was held a prisoner for some time, but finally escaped and telephoned to the city for help. Sheriff Burdick of El Paso county, with a posse of ten armed men, left immediately for the scene.

The water supplies for Colorado Springs and the Cripple Creek district are located on the slopes of Pike's Peak and disputes over them are frequent causes of friction between the two cities.

It seems that Victor is short of water this year, although Colorado Springs has had an ample supply, having 900,000,000 gallons left after the theft of this morning.

HIDE IN BOX CAR

Japanese, Illegally in United States, Suffer Terrible Tortures in Arid Region

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—Tracked by immigration officials for two weeks across the desolate sands of the Arizona desert, suffering intolerable tortures from the torrid heat and thirst and hunger, being finally compelled to kill one of their pack burros, drink its blood and use the flesh for food, two Japanese, charged with being illegally in the United States from Mexico, were driven to bay Monday in a box car a short distance east of Needles, captured and taken to jail. They will be brought to Los Angeles for trial.

The two men are supposed to have crossed the international line near Yuma with two well laden pack animals. The immigration officials were notified when one of the burros of the Japanese wandered into Avalon, Ariz., with a bucket of blood and pieces of flesh, cut from the other burro, tied to the saddle. After a hunt of a fortnight, in which several of the pursuers nearly lost their lives on the desert, the fugitives were finally run down and captured.

GRASS VALLEY, Cal., June 23.—An earthquake, the most severe shock experienced here in several years occurred at 11:25 o'clock last night and almost caused a panic here and in Nevada City. Many people rushed into the street but no damage has been reported. A second and lighter shock came at 11:49.

Reports from Marysville, Chico and Colfax say that those towns were also shaken.

RENO, Nev., June 23.—An earthquake shock was felt here at 11:26 last night. While it was one of the heaviest experienced here, no damage was done. This section of the country has heretofore been considered as being out of the earthquake zone and in late years at least no serious earthquake has been recorded.

Kept Secret

By a two-thirds majority vote, the Building Trades Council last night expelled from membership in that organization C. W. Poole, the delegate to the council from the Stationary Engineers' Union of this city.

The council gave Poole a trial on the charge of having been visiting the Citizens' Alliance Free Labor Bureau on Broadway, near Fifth street, which was, in effect, that the accused was associating with the enemies of union labor and, indirectly at least, giving encouragement to the movement hostile to the unions.

Oriental Frustrated After Trip to Berkeley to Get Maids Back

BERKELEY, June 23.—Attempting the capture of five Chinese slave girls that had been taken in the morning by a posse of police under the direction of Miss Carrie Davis, head of the Methodist Oriental Mission in Berkeley, the mission at 1215 University avenue was quietly surrounded by a large band of Chinese yesterday afternoon and a few of their number delegated to enter the house and secure the young girls. Miss Davis, who had been on the alert for trouble of this kind, was only able to frustrate the intrusion of the slave dealers after a desperate struggle.

When she noticed the gathering crowd of Chinese surrounding the house Miss Davis immediately barricaded the door and at the same time locked the slave girls in an inner room, fearing that they would not appreciate that they were in good hands and might take the side of the slave dealers in the struggle.

Try to Force Door

Five Oriental girls, who had been taken from their homes in China, were rescued yesterday afternoon by a posse of police under the direction of Miss Carrie Davis, head of the Methodist Oriental Mission in Berkeley. The girls were taken from a house on the corner of University and Eleventh streets, where they had been kept for some time. The girls were rescued after a desperate struggle with the Chinese slave dealers. The girls were taken to the police station and are now being cared for by the police.

Girls Are Rescued

Miss Davis informed the authorities Monday afternoon that she knew of the imprisonment of five Chinese slave girls in Joe Luck's establishment. The utmost care was taken in keeping the girls a secret. Miss Davis and United States Commissioner of Immigration, who had been conducting the raid, with the aid of four patrolmen detailed by Captain Peterson of the Oakland police department. Miss Clara Palmer of the mission and two Chinese girls accompanied the raiders. The house was surrounded and the patrolmen placed on the roof, the inmates having no knowledge of the proximity of the authorities. All of the entrances of the main doors were then closed and the Chinese offered stout resistance and it was necessary to burst in the door before an entrance could be effected.

Five Slaves Found

The five slave girls were discovered and placed in the care of Miss Davis. They cried bitterly at their capture, not realizing that their condition was to be improved and thinking that they were being snatched from the claws of the slave dealers only to be confronted with a worse ordeal. They could not be comforted until they were taken to the police station where the raid was explained to them. Joe Luck cleverly made his escape upon the appearance of the police and a thorough search of the house failed to locate him. Two old women and a cook, several men, were the only occupants of the place except the five girls. Joe Luck, owner of the slave girls, is said by Miss Davis to be one of the most notorious and unscrupulous characters of his kind. He was taken to Los Angeles and held in custody for one year, but made his escape to again pursue his trade in young Chinese girls. The five taken from the evil establishment were Yu Ah Chow, How Chow, Gung Hung Sue, How Moy and Gung Ah Yow. They will be held at the local mission for a few days, pending the decision of Miss Davis as to their disposition.

SALT WATER PLANT WILL CUT INSURANCE RATES

ALAMEDA, June 23.—That the new salt water plant will be of a lasting benefit to the city of Alameda is believed by the committee investigating, consisting of Councilmen Bullock, Hammond and Walker. It is proposed to lay a 12-inch pipe along Oak street as far as Clinton avenue and the water is to be drawn from the estuary by a pump which has been installed by the Dow Pump Works at the foot of Oak street, bordering on the estuary. The idea as expressed by Councilman Bullock, who is the chairman of the investigating committee, is to have sufficient fire protection for the homes along the route of the new line. Bullock states that with this fire protection given the city the insurance rates will necessarily be reduced.

MEAN THIEF TAKES MONEY IN BABE'S BANK

ALAMEDA, June 23.—One of the meanest of men is being sought by the police. This fellow is a thief and he has been taking money from the pockets of the people. The police have been unable to locate him and are now offering a reward for his capture. The thief is said to be a man of about 30 years of age, of medium build, and is wearing a dark suit and a light-colored shirt. He is said to be a native of China and is now living in Alameda. The police are now making a thorough search of the city for this man.

Union Men Back at Posts and Construction of Building Going On

BERKELEY, June 23.—As a result of the meeting between Secretary of the Regents Victor Henderson and R. M. Lamb, business agent of the Building Trades Council of Alameda county, and Secretary F. H. Pratt of that organization, the difficulties that caused the strike of the union men working on the Doe Library on the University campus, which threatened to tie up work on the building throughout the summer, have been settled and the union men started back to work this morning. The university authorities had discussed the matter and left it to the discretion of Victor Henderson to see what agreement he could make with the union men.

AUTO PARADE TO SUBWAY SYSTEM ADVERTISE THE FOURTH

Alameda "Boosters" Adopt Unique Plan in Making a Success of Celebration

PROMINENT CITIZENS PROMISE TO TAKE PART

Line of March and Program on Independence Day Is Mapped Out

ALAMEDA, June 23.—Do you want to advertise Alameda? Fourth of July celebration among the surrounding cities? Then oil up your automobile, if you have one, or your neighbors, if you have one, and join in the "Boosters" parade which will start from San Francisco Saturday afternoon and Oakland Saturday night, advertising the event. Dr. Tom Carpenter will lead the flying squadron. E. K. Taylor and M. Delany, with several others, will carry the parade. The parade will carry banners bearing the inscription "Come to Alameda and spend the Fourth."

Former Mayor Taylor declared that every public spirited citizen who owned an auto should either join the procession himself or else send his machine, as the San Jose boosters had made a great impression in both Oakland and San Francisco by their parade and banners and that now was the time for Alameda to show that it was on the map. He declared that a parade through San Francisco Saturday afternoon and through Oakland at night with a band and a line of autos would be the best way to bring more people to this city during the carnival and celebration than almost any other means and offered to wear his famous long costume.

The long costume is an Oriental robe.

Taylor to Represent Confucius

Taylor will represent Confucius, the law-giver and great sage of ancient China. Delany will adopt the attitudes and dress of T'ao Yung Wang, the great soldier, while Dr. Tom Carpenter, who has charge of the parade, will wear the gorgeous costume of Bing What Oh, who, beginning of the Tung dynasty, 5,000,000 years B. C., was appointed royal horse doctor to his majesty, Sing Fat.

The various committees held an executive session after the regular meeting and decided upon the program. The following will be the official program: The parade will form at 9:45 at Lincoln and Webster streets and the grand marshal and his aids will see that the floats and organizations are in their proper places and ready to start on the huge parade. The parade will march from Webster street east on Lincoln to Sherman, from Sherman to Central, from Central to Chestnut to Grand, from Grand to Grand and from Grand to Park and from Park to Lincoln.

Official Dress of Marshals

P. M. Delany announced the official costume of his marshals and aids which will be as follows: Marshals of divisions, white cap with gold or silver band, white coat, white trousers and red, white and blue sash worn over right shoulder.

Aides to marshals and other riders who wish to enter the parade will wear the following costume: White cap with gold or silver band, dark coat and white trousers, each of red, white and blue worn over right shoulder. When reporting for duty marshals will receive a red badge, while aids will receive a white badge from the parade committee.

The baby show and prize contest will start at 2 o'clock and will end in about an hour. The baby exercises will commence at 1:15 o'clock in Lincoln park, leaving the rest of the day free for the athletic and field day events, which being sanctioned by the A. A. L. premises to be the most hotly contested ever held in the State.

Crack Baseball Game

The athletic events start at 2:30 with a baseball game between the Alameda A's and the crack Eureka team. This is the regular league game, but one of the regular league games will be played for the pennant. Manager Joe Kreig and Al Kihn wish it to be generally understood that no admission will be charged for the game as both bleachers and grand stands will be thrown open free to the public.

The bicycle races will start at 3:30 from Sherman and Central and will end at Lincoln park, where all can see the night the O. O. U. team announced last night that the O. O. U. club would send a delegation of forty riders to the side the racers who would enter for the various bicycle events. The bicycle races promise to be exceptionally interesting and the main event will be a one-mile State championship affair, which is the chief annual race in the State and the trophy a gold medal.

Fifteen Mile Team Race

The fifteen-mile team race will be in each team for the Alameda city and will be another interesting race and each team will enter its best men in this event. The field sports will commence at 2:30 at the Lincoln park track and will consist of all field events except the hammer throw, which the athletic committee decided to abolish, on account of danger to spectators. From present indications the field sports will be attended by representatives from every athletic club and many of the high schools around the bay, as the medals are gold, for the first prize, silver for the second and bronze for the third.

Athletic Committee

The athletic committee consists of Joe Kreig, chairman, M. Herspring, E. Macleary, W. Beahle, Dr. George Thompson, Edward Davis and Charles Baum. Poar's concert band will play in Lincoln park from 3 to 5 p. m. and from 5 to 11 p. m. and will take part in the parade.

FIRE TWICE AT MIDNIGHT BURGLAR

E. O. James Discovers Masked Man Trying to Get Into House

SHOTS FOLLOW THIEF AS HE FLEES IN DARKNESS

Friend He Awakens Sees Robber Disappear But Fails to Hit Him

BERKELEY, June 23.—E. O. James, an instructor in the Berkeley High School, awakened at an early hour this morning and discovered that a masked man was attempting to gain entrance to the house by means of a side window. He immediately gave the alarm, awakening a young man that has his rooms on the first floor of the building.

The latter caught a fleeing glimpse of the burglar as he hastened to make his escape and fired two shots from his revolver at the thief, but as the burglar does not think he hit the man, as the imperfect light made accurate shooting impossible.

James reported the matter to the police, who are investigating. He states that a man of about the same size as the one who worked at the entrance to the house on Sunday night.

CAPP LECTURES WILL BE CROWDED

Classes Conducted by the Noted Artist Attract Great Attention

BERKELEY, June 23.—Announcement has been made that a series of lectures in art, the first to be delivered at the University, to be given at the summer session of the University of California. The tendency to broaden the course of study, adding domestic arts, painting and other studies which are generally regarded as the domain of accomplishment, has been noted by the University.

The lectures will be given by the noted artist and lecturer, Professor Clapp, who has been recently returned from a tour of the great galleries of Europe, where he has made a special study of art from the standpoint of the artist. He will give a series of lectures which will have a charge of this department.

Professor Clapp is a noted artist and great numbers of teachers and artists throughout the western States have already registered for the course that he will give, crowding his classes to overflowing.

Evening Lectures

The famous teacher of art will deliver a series of evening lectures on the history of art in Italy, thus giving all of the people of the bay region an opportunity to reap the benefit of his instruction. The list of his lectures which will be so largely attended is as follows:

Early forms of art in Italy; early Christian art; Byzantine art; mosaics. The Renaissance; the Pisani. The beginning of the tradition of the younger set of this city and the members of the college and class committees. Allen is a well-known football player and was guard and captain of the team in 1908. He is a member of the Bachelorhood house in Kentwood, N. Y., where Allen is engaged in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bush, the latter a son of Mrs. J. Y. Bush of Virginia street, are the guests of Mr. Bush's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Bush are on their way to their home in Honolulu from a business trip in New York. For several weeks they had been traveling on the Atlantic coast, giving up the week before sailing for home to their friends in this city. They are leaving tomorrow and will be accompanied by Bush's mother, Mrs. J. Y. Bush, and sister, Mrs. H. H. Allen of San Francisco and Mrs. Brainerd of Cleveland. The Bush home is one of the hospitable ones of the islands and the center of a delightful social life, which frequently includes guests from California, where the Bushes claim many warm friends.

Miss Anita Gompertz is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Le Conte at their summer camp in the Kings river canyon. Later the party will join the Sierra Club on its annual tramp.

Miss Ann McCandless has returned from a six weeks' visit in Alameda, where she was a guest of Miss Lella Lawrence, a graduate at the university.

Miss Bertha Rice of Santa Barbara was a recent guest of the Bushes in Alameda and is now enjoying a visit at Del Monte with her aunt, Mrs. A. N. Towne.

Miss Alma Meyers returned to her home today from a two weeks' visit in Santa Cruz and San Jose.

Dr. Carpenter reported that the delegates to the Oakland Elks, who were going to Los Angeles to enter for the prize, had offered to enter the parade and go through their maneuvers they would use in the competitive drill in Los Angeles. He was instructed to accept their offer.

A. Burns, chairman of the Goddess of Liberty contest, reported that he would be able to announce the winner of the contest at the ball at Harmony Hall tonight and declared he expected to add at least $250 to the celebration fund.

Mr. Frost, representing the Oakland Athletic Association, made the statement that the company would handle all the people who came to the celebration and would give a three-minute service on both the Santa Clara and Park street lines.

E. O. Putnam declared that no expenses should be fixed on the line of march during the parade.

ALAMEDA, June 23.—Al Kihn has received word from Hon. Joseph E. Knowland, grand president of the National Grange, that he has been appointed district deputy grand president of the order. Kihn has been receiving congratulations throughout the day by his many friends and his appointment is received with the greatest favor in the home town, where he has been prominent in the affairs of the order. Kihn will preside at the installing convention of the Grange at San Francisco, which will be held on the 26th of the month.

Walthour, Who Was Coaster, Joins Invaders

Fresno One of Best Ball Towns in League, Says Macdonough

Cobb was the cynosure of all eyes at the Grove park yesterday but the brothers of the "Big One" failed to come through with any of the home run swats which have made him famous in the past couple of weeks. His best crack was one to deep center, which McCalla gathered in after a long sprint.

Macdonough reports that Fresno is one of the best towns in the league and that all the games in the rivalry belt and that attended. The merchants are behind the club first, last and all the time, and doing everything in their power to get a winning team. No organization in the league has met with so many advertisements this season as the Tigers, and none have borne under their difficulties so perseveringly and courageously. In all it is said that nineteen men have left the club either by way of release, trade, or jump-in, etc.

Davy Walthour, a former Coast Leaguer, played in right for the locals and if he can hit the ball as he used to in the old days will be kept there. Davy used to swat the horsehide with the best of them.

Joe Nealon and Jimmy Smith, two of the locals' invalids, were at the game yesterday. Jimmy was in unform and practiced with the boys, but Joe was not able to do that much and probably will not be for at least a week more.

en innings and Tripplet was right behind Min. Forrester has some sharp-breaking curves and alternated with a fast, straight ball, keeping the locals guessing all the time. The hits made from his delivery were not clean cut until the last two innings, when the bombardment commenced.

Catcher Kuhn had a nail ripped off the middle finger of his right hand in the seventh and will be out if the game for a couple of weeks. McEnough took his place and made a put out and an assist on the only ball delivered to him in that inning. Schwartz had two strikes and Burns on third. The signal for a squeeze came but Schwartz struck out.

Tommy Sheehan, third baseman in the Coast League in the days of Mique Fisher's famous Tigers is still wanted by Tacoma. Sheehan is playing with the Invaders, having refused to report to the Rochester team. Manager Shreeder yesterday wired John Ganzel at Rochester, asking what he would take for Sheehan.

JAMES CLAY DUNPHY, REPUTED MILLIONAIRE, WEDS 'DODIE' VALENCIA

Couple Dash Off to Redwood City in Auto Ann Add Sensational Climax to Life of Many Escapades.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—As a sensational climax to any number of notorious escapades on both sides, James Clay Dunphy, reputed millionaire and hero of a recent divorce, and Dodie Valencia, widely known among her intimates in the tendorin as the "Vampire," who claims a part of the Baird estate for her child who, she asserts, is the late David Baird's son, were married at Redwood City last evening.

Then amid the popping of wine corks and much hilarity, the couple returned to this city in an automobile and until the wee sma' hours this morning drank to a dizzy cup who presided at the festivities, in sparkling burgundy and iced golden bubbles of champagne.

The new Mrs. Dunphy was widely known in the tendorin before and after the fire and gained notoriety because of her intimacy with young David Baird. On the death of a year ago she advanced the claim that he was the father of her child and is now fighting for a share of the estate.

Dunphy Gets Divorce

Dunphy's most recent escapade was to refuse payment for an automobile for which offense he spent a night in the City Prison and was brought into the Police Court on the morning of the 15th. The Dunphy divorce case was one of the most sensational ever fought out here.

Mrs. Dunphy was finally granted an interlocutory decree on September 8th of last year and was allowed $50,000 which was claimed, the morning of the 15th, to be the husband's estate. Shortly afterward Dunphy showed that at the time she was married to him she was not legally separated from her former husband, Julius Silverberg of Oregon. The decree was set aside.

Then came rumors of a reconciliation between the Dunphys and it was said that they were to be married again as soon as Mrs. Dunphy-Silverberg could obtain a divorce from her former husband, the contented jurist. Meanwhile they were seen in public together and appeared frequently in boxes at the theaters. The contented wife confided to her intimates that "Dunphy was too perfectly sweet" when he was pecked and well, she had altogether made up her mind, of course, but—perhaps after her marital tangle was straightened out they would again be legally united.

Falls in Love

Probably "Dunphy" got tired of the role of penitent, at any rate he wandered down into the tendorin, where "reformation" is not in popular demand among the women and—the red lights proved alluring and he was pecked often. There he met the fair Dodie Valencia in the role of the sorrowing and alleged widow of the dead millionaire.

Dunphy, his cavalry aroused by beauty in distress, proceeded to console her, mostly in wines of two vintage which are to be found in a little world forgotten spot in the darkest block on Pacific street, and the "Vampire" eyes brightened at the sight of him.

"Dodie's" eyes have brought her no little fame and have been a large factor in building up a bank account, as can testify any number of non-vivants who are among those who have awakened after a more or less torpid slumber. Several years ago, when the late Dave McLaughlin was a habitué of the gay white way, she was a guest frequently in the downtown.

At that time, in the first bloom of youth, and before her fame had spread, she was courted and fed by a wild cove of wealthy youths of more or less prominent families, until one night, Lewis Cornell, now married and holding a diplomatic position in the Philippines under the present administration, snatched from her foot a gray suede slipper and drank in a downtown cafe, to the "queen of mirth." Shortly after she took up a permanent residence in the half world.

Dodie Valencia caused much sorrow to the Baird family, which had more than its share of tragedy without her. David Baird and Dodie Valencia were seen often together, and she showed him the way to a wild, reckless life that helped to cut his life short. On his death, the woman came forward and claimed that she was the legal wife of young Baird, and her claims on behalf of her child are still being contested in court.

Notorious Escapades

The woman is a descendant of one of the old Spanish families of California, a slight frail looking woman, almost girlish. But for all her mild appearance she is reputed to have caused more trouble than any of the women who prey in the half-light district. Her escapades have been notorious ever since she first appeared in the regions where the habitués are only seen in the night time.

Dunphy has also been a familiar figure in the tendorin and along the cocktail route.

Plunge Into Matrimony

Which one suggested the plunge into matrimony neither volunteered to say. But at any rate they set to Redwood City yesterday in an automobile, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kelly of Los Angeles.

They sought out County Clerk Joe Nash and applied for a license. Dunphy at first declared that he was single, then decided to tell all his matrimonial trouble. The license was granted, and the party returned to the city. The ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace J. P. Hannon. Wine flowed in profusion before and after the pair were made one.

The party started for San Francisco in the evening and did not pass any of the roadhouses without first pausing to have more wine and to announce to the world the glad news that they had been married. By the time they reached the city they were in that state where the whole universe was filled with bright lights and the music of Cops were trickling around the automobile.

MRS. EVANS MAY OPPOSE OSBORNE

Divorced Wife of Constructor Hears Lieutenant Put the Blame on Her

VALLEJO, June 23.—Powerful political friends of Lieutenant Wayne Osborne, accused of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman for his part in breaking up the domestic happiness of Naval Constructor H. A. Evans, are making a desperate fight at the national capital to save Osborne from the penalty of his indiscretions.

Such is the story told by Mrs. Maud Evans, who is spending a few weeks in this city. Mrs. Evans says that she has just received a letter from a naval officer stationed at Washington, which tells of the efforts of Osborne's friends to have the matter settled without a court martial.

Mrs. Evans will remain here until she hears the verdict of the navy department upon the board of inquiry's recommendations. If a court martial is ordered she is anxious and willing to testify against the man who caused her separation from her husband and who, she says, then refused to make good his promises to marry her at the expiration of the year.

Mrs. Evans' latest bitterness against Osborne is due to the fact that she has heard that in his defense before the board of inquiry Osborne attempted to make out that he was the victim of a willful and designing woman.

RENEW SEARCH FOR SHEPHERD

Cavalrymen, Who Gave Up
Hunt For Body, Ordered
Out Again

YOSEMITE, June 23.—The United States Cavalrymen who recently gave up the search for the remains of F. P. Shepherd, the San Franciscan, who was lost last Thursday near Sentinel Dome, recommenced their hunt yesterday, this time descending by means of ropes the cliffs which look down on the Yosemite falls and the rapids in the upper Merced canyon.

It is supposed that Shepherd became excited when he found himself lost at nightfall, and that instead of building a fire and waiting until dawn he frantically dashed through the brush, fighting his way in the fog and darkness, and stumbling over a precipice, before he knew it he was dashed to pieces. Major W. W. Forth, acting superintendent of the valley, says that had Shepherd remained on the trails, which are all safe for pedestrians or saddle animals, he would be alive and safe today.

2000 ACT WITH MAUDE ADAMS

On Milk White Charger Actress
Appears as the "Maid of Orleans"

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 23.—The experiment of producing Schiller's "Maid of Orleans" beneath starry skies with close approach to the historic details surrounding the bright figure of the fifteenth century, was carried out with considerable success last night in the Harvard Stadium by Miss Maude Adams and a company numbering about 2000 persons. The greater part of the working force of the Frohman syndicate was actually engaged in the production.

The beauties of Schiller's lines and the magnitude of the plan of re-production combined to make the few hours in the stadium a period of intense pleasure. The historic settings were truly maintained throughout from the little pastoral scene in Johann's father's home with the flocks of living sheep and actual trees of the forest, to the splendor of the French court, the clash of the English and the French arms, the coronation banquet and the death scene in the cathedral.

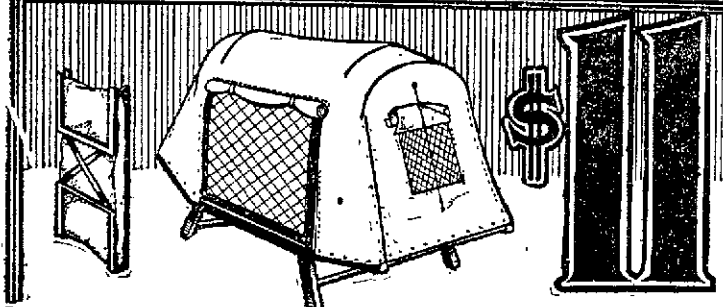

The motley crowds of serfs were made up of Harvard students. Men of the State militia marched as archers and spearmen in the French and English armies. Horsemen from militia battalions clattered into the arena in coats of mail, while able actors in armor tramped the greensward and clashed in duels in the most realistic manner.

And through all the scenes threaded the slim figure of Miss Adams, as the French maid—first in a homely peasant's dress, then in a brilliant armor and seated on a milk white charger, and finally in the knightly costume that at last became her shroud.

Special electric light plants had been installed to supply the hundreds of brilliant lights needed. The performance moved with remarkable smoothness, considering its immensity, and the fact that opportunity for repeated rehearsals had not been found.

Miss Adams was accorded an ovation at the end of the performance.

REFUSE TO CUT LUMBER DUTY

Senators by 44 to 24 Vote Fix the Schedule at $1.50
a Thousand

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Without a speech the Senate today began voting on the lumber schedule as soon as a quorum had been procured. Whether due to the hot weather or to exhaustion of the orators, the change was accepted as a good omen by those who are anxious to crowd the tariff bill to final action and have the session come to an end. The first vote was on an amendment by Senator McCumber, proposing the rate of $1 per thousand on saved lumber instead of the rate decided upon by the Finance Committee, which was $1.50 per thousand. The committee was sustained, 44 to 24.

For High Duty

From the beginning of the session there has been a decided contest over the lumber rate and one of the hardest fights made by the northwestern Senators had been for free lumber. The majority against any reduction, as shown by today's vote, indicates not only that the committee's schedule will remain unchanged in the Senate, but that the sentiment for a protective duty is so strong that it will be difficult to change the Senate's rates in conference. When the Senate convened at 10 o'clock McCumber took the floor and presented his amendment. To the surprise of all no one rose to speak, and Senator Fry, always prompt in the chair, immediately put the question to a vote.

How They Voted

Of the affirmative votes only ten were cast by Democrats, as follows: Bankhead, Clay, Davis, Hughes, Johnson, McLaurin, Overman, Painter, Tillman and Gore.

The Republicans who cast their votes in support of the amendment were: Beveridge, Brister, Brown, Burkett, Carter, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Curtis, Gamble, La Follette, McCumber and Nelson.

The Democrats voting against the amendment were: Bacon, Bailey, Chamberlain, Fletcher, Foster, McCreary, Simmons, Smith of Maryland, Tallaferro and Taylor.

SONG CYCLE IS FEATURE OF FITZGERALD EVENING

BIRMINGHAM, June 23.—An attractive feature at the Fitzgerald evening to be given at Mount Hall tonight will be the song cycle, "In a Persian Garden." This will be given by a quartet composed of Mrs. G. H. Davis, contralto; Mrs. Carroll, contralto; Carl Anderson, tenor; Henry L. Perry, basso; Miss Virginia de Fremery, accompanist. In addition to the music there will be readings from the poems of Fitzgerald, completing a program that will be pleasing to those who number Fitzgerald and Omar among their favorites.

Other events are announced as follows: June 30, Wagner evening; July 7, Tenor evening; July 14, Mendelssohn-Chopin evening; July 21, Poe-Lincoln-Holmes evening; July 28, Shakespeare evening.

WEDDED 23 YEARS; SEEKS DIVORCE

Mrs. Amy H. Graves Asks For Separation From Her Husband

Mrs. Amy Helen Graves of 763 East Fifteenth street has brought suit in the Superior Court for a divorce from Elfram A. Graves, alleging willful desertion and abandonment. The couple were married in San Francisco in November, 1885, and lived together for twenty-three years continuously before the separation. Three children, all grown, are the living issue of the marriage—Amy C. Simms, Roy D. and Henry C. Graves—well known in the property, acquired by her by gift from her city. Mrs. Graves states in her complaint that she is the owner of considerable court to declare as her separate estate.

MARTINEZ, June 23.—The case of the People vs. Harry Young, Jack Jamburno, Dominick Gotti, Bruno Casti, William King, Antonio Cerelli, Edwin Costello, Jack Pagani, William Pucini, F. Palmeri and William Schneider, charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder, was called in the Justice Court yesterday. Judge W. H. Hough of Walnut creek presiding. The defendants took part in the riot here on June 8th, when Constable C. H. Palmer was nearly beaten to death by a band of thugs, who had accompanied the excursion of the Garibaldi Guards of San Francisco to this place for a picnic. Jack Jamburno, alias Edward Foggi, is the ringleader of the gang, and evidence brought out at the preliminary hearing proves a strong case on his part to do the constable up before leaving town. He described in detail the affair at the park when he made Foggi, or Jamburno, and his pals pay for beer that was stolen, and later of the threats that were made against him by Antonio Cerelli, when the officer cautioned the men against creating trouble in the pavilion. He identified as the man who first knocked him down near the Southern Pacific depot, and Cerelli as the man who struck him upon the head with a bottle half filled with beer while he was defending himself from the attack made by Jamburno and others.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—The election of San Francisco yesterday voted to bond the city in the sum of $600,000 for the construction and equipment of a polytechnic high school. Of the various proposed improvements the polytechnic alone gained the requisite two-thirds vote. Of the remaining eight projects on the ballot all gained a majority vote.

CARNIVAL AT HEALDSBURG

Friday and Saturday, June 25 and 26, there will be a big water carnival at Healdsburg. By damming the Russian river, Lake Sotoyome is formed and by this means a large, wide stretch of water is given. On Saturday, June 26, many interesting and novel features have been arranged for on the water. Excursions from all points to Healdsburg have been arranged for on that day. By paying $1.50 for an excursion ticket, which is good on the train leaving San Francisco at 7:45 a. m. and returning same day, a very enjoyable day can be spent in Healdsburg along the banks of beautiful Lake Sotoyome. The rate for a longer stay is $2.50.

Stock Reducing Sale

This sale will be over in a very few days. If you want "Breuner Quality" furniture at a saving of one-third to one-half in price you had better come in this week, and before Saturday, too.

You will profit by reading this

After working hard for nearly eleven years and saving every cent he could spare, Charles W. Breuner of San Francisco saved up $3250. He owned a lot in Central Piedmont, near the East Route, and planned to spend $2000 of his savings for a little bungalow as a home for THE girl who was waiting for him. With the balance of $450 he expected to purchase furniture and carpets for his little nest; but thereby hangs a tale: When the house was turned over to him June 15th it had cost nearly the entire amount of his savings—he had less than a hundred dollars left for the furniture, and the wedding day was set (June the 30th).

$8.85

Isn't it mighty nice to have ice tea, cool sweet milk and a solid slice of butter on your dinner table? The food one has to throw away these days will pay for a Refrigerator. The one pictured is constructed of solid golden ash, stands 32 inches high, holds 25 lbs. of ice and will meet all the requirements of the average family. Get one tomorrow morning.

And one of our customers will receive a $5000 Bungalow absolutely free—are you a Breuner customer?

7. Difference Between Eyes

Seldom are two eyes of equal strength. Yet wherever there is inequality of visual power, wherever one eye does more work than its fellow, there also is eyestrain. And eyestrain slowly but inevitably impairs the sight.

If you have reason to believe one eye stronger than the other, have them examined and if necessary wear glasses—particularly if you do much reading, sewing or other close work.

Good glasses will coax a poor eye into undertaking its share of the work of vision and relieving the good eye of its unfair burden, thus increasing the present working power and assuring the future usefulness of both.
